THE JUDGES

THIS most important department of the Horse Show will be in the capable hands of Mr. Scott Isbell, of Bowling Green, Ky.; Mr. T. M. Wilson, of Cave City, Ky., and Mr. Walter Palmer, of Ottawa, Ill. There are no better horsemen in the United States than these three gentlemen, and exhibitors will have no cause for complaint upon their awards. For years Mr. Isbell and Mr. Wilson have judged in the Central Kentucky Fair Circuit and their work has received many complimentary notices from the leading stock journals of the country. Mr. Palmer has served as judge of the Chicago Horse Show, the St. Louis Horse Show and was one of the judges at the St. Louis World's Fair, in light harness classes.

Boxes will be auctioned at the Palmer House Monday evening, September 24th, at 8 o'clock.

Every Kentuckian loves a good horse. The approaching Horse Show will be the largest gathering of blooded horses ever shown in the western part of the state, and the public will undoubtedly be surprised at the magnificent lot of stock on exhibition.

LOST IN JACKSON

MRS. WEST'S LITTLE DAUGHTER
WANDERS FROM HOME.

And Neighbors Take Her in and Find Mother Searching for Her in the Streets.

About half after nine o'clock this morning a little girl wandered up to the door of Mr. Richard Love's home on Highland avenue, weeping and wailing with despair because she was lost. Mr. Love tried to quiet the child, and hoping to get help to do so, he carried her to Mr. Jeff Shelton's, at 1077 North Highland, and turned her over to Mrs. Shelton to comfort. At first the poor little thing was so frightened that she could tell nothing about herself, but the kindly lady into whose hands she had fallen soon soothed and comforted her and little by little gathered from her disconnected story that her name was Gladys West. She was five years old, and left home this morning to take a little "walk." She further said that she had been here but a week, but she could give no idea of where she lived. Notice was at once telephoned to police headquarters, where it was hoped some news could be learned, but no one knew anything about the little waif.

Messrs. Shelton and Love had given up hope of finding out to whom she belonged and had started home and were on Highland avenue just where King street crosses it, when they were accosted by the child's mother, who was searching for her.

It was a very joyful and at the same time affecting meeting. The mother, who is Mrs. West, of Paducah, Ky., is here on a visit to some friends on Nelson street, and as she thought her child was at a neighbor's just across the street, she had not at all alarm until a short time before when, upon inquiry, she found that Gladys was not at the neighbor's. —Jackson Sun.

BRYAN OUTBRYANED

TEXAS POPULIST WANTS TO OWN
THE PACKING HOUSES.

Government Ownership Reaches the Limit in Southwestern State Convention.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Fort Worth, Texas, says: Laura B. Payne, of Fort Worth, in accepting yesterday the nomination on the Socialist ticket for congress in this district, comes out strongly for government ownership of railroads; and goes a step farther than Bryan in advocating government ownership of all the packing houses. Miss Payne is the first woman to run for congress in Texas, and says she will push her campaign vigorously. When asked what she would do if elected, she replied: "The first thing I would do would be to accuse the grafters in congress of their wrong doings and arouse the public of the entire country to oust the rogues from the national legislature."

—Our patrons are urged to have any necessary repairs to their heating stoves made at once instead of waiting until the fall rush sets in. L. W.

It's a case of unspeakable misery when a woman has no one to talk to.

Here is Relief

"I did not know anything could stop my periodical pains entirely, but Wine of Cardui did," writes Mrs. Beulah Rowley of Champoeg, Oreg. "I had suffered constantly in this way for four years, getting so bad that I was a total wreck, and would sometimes be unconscious for twelve hours at a time."
"My husband brought me a bottle of

WINE OF CARDUI Woman's Relief

which greatly helped me, and now I advise all women suffering with painful periods to use it and be relieved as I have been." Cardui has a gentle, refreshing, strengthening effect, upon the womanly organs; it regulates fitful functions, and restores sick women to proper habits and health. It is a purely vegetable extract of true medicinal merit, and has been in successful use for these diseases for over half a century. Try it.
